

AlbumArte invites to

Can we collect time and space?

A roundtable without a table, within Chiara Mu's project "From Here to Eternity"

AlbumArte Project Space | Via Flaminia 122, Rome

In order to promote and support the crowd funding campaign based on the project "From Here to Eternity" by Chiara Mu - which will open Wednesday, February 18th, 2015 - AlbumArte is pleased to invite you to the conversation about performance art on Wednesday, January 28th at 6:30 p.m. .

The theme proposed by the artist intends to reflect on the paradoxical nature of the categories of time and space when these are displayed as collectable artworks. We consider the performative experience as a not reproducible one and so far not subjugated to the market's laws. But, it is really like this?

The proposal of the crowd funding campaign called "Exercises in Vision", ongoing on the international platform Indiegogo until February 16th, 2015, and an organic part of the exhibition "From Here to Eternity", is in fact for Chiara Mu a way to recognize an economic dignity of some kind to performance art, intended here as a relational and live practice in the realm of contemporary visual art.

The artist and the curator of the exhibition Maria Rosa Sossai will lead the conversation with the following speakers: Daniela Bigi - Co-editor of "Arte e Critica", Gianluca Brogna - Art critic and independent curator, Pietro Gaglianò - Art critic; Anna Mattiolo - Director of MAXXI Arte; Massimo Mininni - Curator of GNAM; Grumo Piacentini - Artist; Daniela Trincia - Art journalist; Alessandra Troncone - Art critic and curator; Raffaella Sciarretta - Art collector.

During the event, it will be possible to support the crowd funding campaign by donating directly to the artist or by reserving a sum. The campaign is available at the following link until February 16th, 2015:
