AlbumArte realises its first virtual exhibition titled *DA CASA. Abitare il tempo sospeso.

The emergency requires us to *stay home.

A necessary and apparently simple condition, but also a starting point for a series of important reflections. In such a particular and difficult moment, of apprehensions, paradoxes, cancellations, suspensions and distances, AlbumArte realises its first virtual exhibition that will discuss the theme of home, involving a group of artists, who already took part in the AlbumArte 20x20 exhibition in the December 2019.

Part of a cultural energy that is developing in the capital, this creative community wants to testify a human as well as artistic participation, an active and proactive presence that tackles the difficulties and delves into their contents; such as the obligation to stay at home, forced house arrest for all, despite being all of us innocent, but no less responsible for this.

The works of the artists will reflect on the theme of home. Our home, the home of those who do not have it, the empty home, or full of presences, of those we love and those we no longer recognise, the home we would like to have, the one that makes us feel alone, but also the reflection on an already intimate space that, in such a suspended moment, becomes even more an internal, a place where, if they force us to stay, we confront ourselves.

How the exhibition is going to take place: the artworks (one per artist) will be published every day on the social media channels of AlbumArte and eventually collected in a dedicated Gallery on the website and a virtual catalog, edited by Anna Cestelli Guidi and Cristina Cobiانchi, collecting all the works and reflections.

The exhibition will also highlight an additional new need, that of a connected community as it is this community of AlbumArte that mobilises and collaborates in the coordination and curation of the exhibition. All strictly from their home and their studio, precisely da casa.

For the opening of the exhibition we will wait for you on Thursday March 12th, all day long, on our Instagram and Facebook profiles for a different and unexpected moment of encounter, a dialogue of many voices as it is the exhibition, a way to feel closer even when far away. From 5:00 PM the first work will be posted.
