Wednesday, June 23 at 7:00 p.m. AlbumArte and the Accademia di Belle Arti di Roma, present the unreleased performance by Lucia Bricco entitled “Lo sai che Jo se ne va?” part of the group exhibition A MISURA in progress at AlbumArte from May 19 to June 25, 2021, curated by Donatella Landi.

Experience is a mobile whole, without waste and without a centre. And poetry is created as an imitation of experience.

It does not begin, it does not adjust and it does not end, but "rotates like the firmament".[1]

*The time of the performance is meant to be decentralised, transitional, shifted.
The body irrupts as a residue,*

a trace of its own history. It is vulnerably present in a way that defies the law of position

because, like every small particle within the Absolute, it contains that which is both beside and beyond itself.
